Father Paul's Reflections on the Readings

Easter Sunday

Today we celebrate the greatest of all Christian feasts. St. Paul tells us, 'If Christ has not been raised from death our faith is futile; we are still in our sins. The resurrection of Jesus gives meaning to the Christian faith and Christian life. Life does not end on Good Friday. At the foot of the Cross it just begins. Its roots start growing and it blooms on the day of resurrection. It instills a new hope and a new outlook to life.

Resurrection of Jesus has been an experience that transformed the whole life of his disciples. The courage and conviction they manifest in later days speak volumes of the reality of resurrection. In the gospel of John, we see, Jesus calls out to Mary Magdalene, "Mary". Immediately Mary turns around and calls, "Rabooni (Master)". She has been talking to the same person for quite some time. But the right moment of transformation came when the call came from the master. She runs fast to others to convey the new experience she started experiencing before its warmth subsides. This is resurrection experience. May this Easter be a day of new experiences to us. May we all experience the transformative beginnings of a resurrected life, proclaiming through our deeds than words that we believe in a Master who crossed over from this shore of existence to the other, promising a share in His Kingdom to everyone who opens up one's heart to love and forgiveness. Happy Easter.

The Sunday after Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday!

What is Divine Mercy Sunday?

Divine Mercy Sunday is a very special Sunday when the Divine Floodgates from Heaven are wide-opened and Jesus offers us the total forgiveness of all sins and punishment to any soul, who goes to Confession and receives Him in Holy Communion, on that day .

Where did Divine Mercy Sunday come from?

Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska: The Humble Instrument—Sister Faustina was a young, uneducated nun in a convent of the Congregation of Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in Poland during the 1930s. She came from a poor family that struggled during the years of World War I. She had only three years of simple education, so hers were the humblest tasks in the convent, usually in the kitchen or garden. However, she received extraordinary revelations — or messages — from our Lord Jesus. Jesus asked Sr. Faustina to record these experiences, which she compiled into notebooks. These notebooks are known today as the Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska, and the words contained within are God's loving message of Divine Mercy. Though the Divine Mercy message is not new to the teachings of the Church, Sr. Faustina's Diary sparked a great movement, and a strong and significant focus on the mercy of Christ. Saint John Paul II canonized Sr. Faustina in 2000 making her the "first saint of the new millennium." Speaking of Sr. Faustina and the importance of the message contained in her Diary, the Pope called her "the great apostle of Divine Mercy in our time." Today, we continue to rely on St. Faustina as a constant reminder of the message to trust in Jesus' endless mercy, and to live life mercifully toward others. We also turn to her in prayer and request her intercession to our merciful Savior on our behalf.

How to prepare for Divine Mercy Sunday

In addition to a novena, Jesus further asked that this Feast of the Divine Mercy be preceded by a Novena of Chaplets, or a personal devotional prayer that can be prayed privately or in a group, out loud or silently, in a church or in an ordinary setting (<https://simplycatholic.com/what-is-a-chaplet/>), to the Divine Mercy which would begin on Good Friday.

In her diary, St. Faustina wrote that Jesus told her:

"On each day of the novena you will bring to My Heart a different group of souls and you will immerse them in this ocean of My mercy... On each day you will beg My Father, on the strength of My passion, for the graces for these souls. By this novena I will grant every possible grace to souls." (Diary 1209, 796)

Divine Mercy Novena

Begin on Good Friday

Say each day's corresponding prayer, followed by the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

Day 1: Today bring to Me ALL MANKIND, ESPECIALLY ALL SINNERS, and immerse them in the ocean of My mercy. In this way you will console Me in the bitter grief into which the loss of souls plunges Me. (Recite Chaplet)

Divine Mercy Chaplet: 1. Begin with the Sign of the Cross, one Our Father, one Hail Mary and The Apostles Creed.

2. Then on the Our Father Beads say the following:

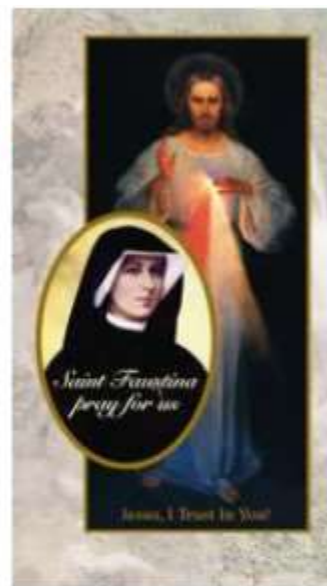

Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

3. On the 10 Hail Mary Beads say the following:

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world. (Repeat step 2 and 3 for all five decades).

4. Conclude with (three times):

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

Day 2: Today bring to Me THE SOULS OF PRIESTS AND RELIGIOUS, and immerse them in My unfathomable mercy. It was they who gave Me strength to endure My bitter Passion. Through them as through channels My mercy flows out upon mankind. (Recite Chaplet)

Day 3: Today bring to Me ALL DEVOUT AND FAITHFUL SOULS, and immerse them in the ocean of My mercy. The souls brought Me consolation on the Way of the Cross. They were that drop of consolation in the midst of an ocean of bitterness. (Recite Chaplet)

Day 4: Today bring to Me The PAGANS AND THOSE WHO DO NOT YET KNOW ME. I was thinking also of them during My bitter Passion, and their future zeal comforted My Heart. Immerse them in the ocean of My mercy. (Recite Chaplet)

Day 5: Today bring to Me THE SOULS OF THOSE WHO HAVE SEPARATED THEMSELVES FROM MY CHURCH,* and immerse them in the ocean of My mercy. During My bitter Passion they tore at My Body and Heart, that is, My Church. As they return to unity with the Church, My wounds heal and in this way they alleviate My Passion. (Recite Chaplet)

Day 6: Today bring to Me THE MEEK AND HUMBLE SOULS AND THE SOULS OF LITTLE CHILDREN, and immerse them in My mercy. These souls most closely resemble My Heart. They strengthened Me during My bitter agony. I saw them as earthly Angels, who will keep vigil at My altars. I pour out upon them whole torrents of grace. Only the humble soul is capable of receiving My grace. I favor humble souls with My confidence. (Recite Chaplet)

Day 7: Today bring to Me THE SOULS WHO ESPECIALLY VENERATE AND GLORIFY MY MERCY,* and immerse them in My mercy. These souls sorrowed most over my Passion and entered most deeply into My spirit. They are living images of My Compassionate Heart. These souls will shine with a special brightness in the next life. Not one of them will go into the fire of hell. I shall particularly defend each one of them at the hour of death. (Recite Chaplet)

Day 8: Today bring to Me THE SOULS WHO ARE DETAINED IN PURGATORY, and immerse them in the abyss of My mercy. Let the torrents of My Blood cool down their scorching flames. All these souls are greatly loved by Me. They are making retribution to My justice. It is in your power to bring them relief. Draw all the indulgences from the treasury of My Church and offer them on their behalf. Oh, if you only knew the torments they suffer, you would continually offer for them the aims of the spirit and pay off their debt to My justice. (Recite Chaplet)

Day 9: Today bring to Me SOULS WHO HAVE BECOME LUKEWARM,* and immerse them in the abyss of My mercy. These souls wound My Heart most painfully. My soul suffered the most dreadful loathing in the Garden of Olives because of lukewarm souls. They were the reason I cried out: 'Father, take this cup away from Me, if it be Your will.' For them, the last hope of salvation is to run to My mercy. (Recite Chaplet)

The Sacraments in General

In the previous three essays, we saw that we are justified when we open our hearts to God and allow him to produce in us His sanctifying grace—that is, cleansing us from sin, making us holy, and producing faith, hope, and love in our hearts. In this essay, we will consider what role the sacraments play in making Christ's saving grace present within each of us.

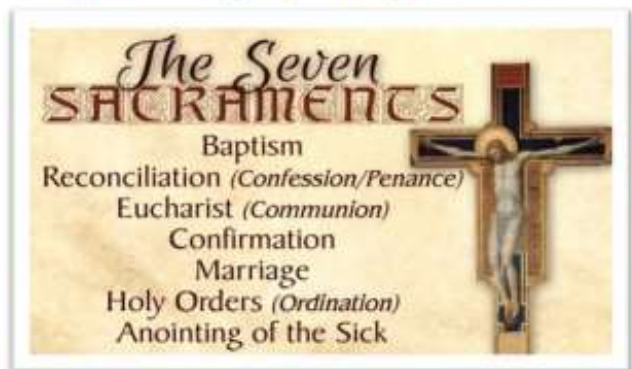

First, the sacraments do not create grace; rather, all grace comes from Christ's death on the cross (Hebrews 10: 10-14). Instead, the sacraments make present in us the grace from Christ's death on the cross (Sacrosanctum Concilium 61; Catechism of the Catholic Church, CCC, 1084). For example, imagine that there is water in a water dispenser. The water is like Christ's sanctifying grace, but the way we access Christ's grace is through the dispenser or the sacraments.

The seven sacraments are visible signs by which the Holy Spirit makes present to us the invisible grace of salvation (CCC, 1084). For example, the water and words used during baptism are the visible instrument or sign by which grace, the removal of sin, is made present to us (CCC, 1234). Like Christ, both God and man, the sacraments take something human and elevate it to a divine purpose.

Throughout all of scripture, God frequently uses visible/sensible signs to mediate His interaction with human beings. For example, Moses at the burning bush (Exodus 3: 1-6), the blood of the lamb at Passover (Exodus 12: 1-20), the prophets themselves, and Christ. Even scripture is human writing that was divinely inspired by God. To communicate with Himself with us, God takes what is human and endows it with divine realities. It should come as no surprise, then, that God should choose to mediate the grace of His salvation by way of the sacraments, and sometimes, by way of specific people like priests and bishops.

On a concluding note, God created the sacraments for us and we have a responsibility to partake of them. As the German theologian, Adam Möhler says, "God, who freely chooses one mode of communicating to us His grace, can make use of another; but it is not for man to reject, according to his caprice, the means of salvation offered to him by Christ, and to prefer another path of grace" (Symbolism, 205). For example, imagine that you are hanging off a cliff and Jesus offers his hand to pull you up. It would be dangerously prideful to slap away Jesus' hand or reject the sacraments and demand some other means of receiving the grace of salvation.

Types of Grace

- Sacramental Grace – the specific or particular grace we receive in the sacraments
- Sanctifying Grace – a sharing in the life God that transforms us and makes us holy
- Actual Grace – a specific divine help that enables us to perform a good act such as forgiving, avoiding a habitual sin, and being courageous in doing the right thing.
- We have to be in the state of grace (free from mortal sin) in order for grace to increase or take effect.
- Grace transforms and increases in us the virtues of faith, hope, and charity (theological virtues)

Next week, we will consider the Sacrament of Baptism.
