Father Paul's Reflections

Fourth Sunday of Easter

On the Fourth Sunday of Easter is called Good Shepherd Sunday. In today's Gospel, we are presented with the most genuine, committed and never compromising shepherd who is ever ready even to sacrifice his life for the sheep. Jesus is our shepherd who leads, protects and guides us to the safest pastures of life. Jesus claims that he knows his own sheep and they listen to his voice. Jesus is the door that protects and safeguards his followers. He is the good shepherd who gives his own life for the sheep and he becomes their way that leads to life eternal. Jesus knows that his sheep require constant attention and care. The character of the sheep is such that they can never be on the right track unless they listen and follow the shepherd. The sheep have no natural sense of direction, they do not seem to know which way to go in life, they are incapable of caring for themselves on their own and they are weak animals. Like in the case of sheep, we, his followers are so vulnerable and susceptible to many failures, wounds and temptations in our lives. Jesus becomes our strength who helps to overcome our weaknesses. Our role is to serve the God we know, and know the God we serve. Everyone who is entrusted with the care of others is a shepherd. Parents must be especially careful of their duties as shepherds, becoming role models for their children by leading exemplary lives. Let us pray that we may be enabled to hear Jesus telling us, "I am the Door. Whoever enters through me will be saved".

Floriea Provenzano, our parishioner is at Good Shepherd Nursing Home, 159 Edgington Lane, Wheeling, WV 26003. She would love to get a card or a note from her friends at Corpus Christi.

THE EUCHARIST and BIG SCREEN PROJECTORS

We all know the Eucharist is "the source and summit of the Christian life."<sup>1</sup> We also know Jesus himself taught just how important it is to celebrate his Eucharist.<sup>2</sup> The Liturgy of the Eucharist is that part of the Mass where we do what Jesus said to do and he becomes truly present – body, blood, soul, and divinity – under the appearances of bread and wine. This is what the Church means when she speaks of the "Real Presence" of Christ in the Eucharist.<sup>3</sup>

Knowing just how important the Eucharistic Celebration is the question facing many Catholic Churches is whether big projector images, changing screens and flashing pretty pictures on the wall are respectful to Jesus. Are these distractions consistent with the humble focus we should have on God, his sacrifice and his mercy at this most important moment.

To show respect for Jesus and his Eucharist and to minimize the distractions for the faithful who want to pray the Eucharist we, at Corpus Christi, will pause big screen projection during this most important portion of the Mass. For these few minutes of the Mass let our focus be on Jesus not TV.
