Father Paul's Reflections

on the Readings

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light." Saint Matthew saw Jesus as the Light. He came to bring a light of hope to people are living in distress. Are you living in darkness? How do I know I am living in the darkness? Prophet Isaiah talks about spiritual darkens. We may identify some kinds of darkness like: darkness of unbelieving, darkness of ignorance, darkness of stubbornness, darkness of hopeless, darkness of isolation or darkness of sins. Jesus calls us to repent, means he calls us to come out of our own darkness. He calls us to expose our mind and our heart to his light.

Let us repent as Jesus called us to do. We are called to follow Him. If we believe and do as God calls us to do, we will have more joy and peace in this life and in the life to come. Let us ask the Lord to give us the strength and perseverance to answer his calling, so that we may faithfully serve the Lord, doing His Divine will as best as we can by cooperating with His grace.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Father Paul is out of the country on his his annual vacation until February 16th

WELCOME to Father Sam Sacus who will be covering our weekend masses and Fr. Joe Wiley who will be covering the 11am mass on Wednesdays

TOGETHER IN HOLINESS™ CONFERENCE SERIES

The Church's call to a new evangelization cannot be answered without the faithful being empowered in their living. This is done by providing them with quality time with one's spouse. This is an invitation to welcome the sacrament of marriage in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston. Large, every married and engaged couple is invited to participate in together they can counteract the world of God through the preparation, encounter Jesus Christ in the sacrament, and enjoy fellowship with other couples.
