Father Paul's Reflections on the Readings

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Whoever does not take up his cross and follow me is not worthy of me." These are the words of Jesus in today's gospel. Following Jesus means putting him first – ahead of money, possessions, success, ahead of our very selves. Jesus never demands us to cope with impossible odds. He gives us his resources. Jesus always advocated that it is better to burn out than to rust out in life. Life is always enhanced and made meaningful when it is spent, and not when it is accumulated selfishly. Every giving in the name of Jesus, involves a sacrifice and a reward. It is the law of the nature. In the death of the seed, the plant grows. We can't have a good healthy family life if our parents were not prepared to sacrifice their comforts and freedom for the sake of the family. Whatever your cross; Whatever your pain; There will always be sunshine after the rain. Perhaps you may stumble; Perhaps even fall. But God is always ready to answer your call.

Saying goodbye is never easy, because it's a bitter-sweet occasion. In my heart there is sadness, but also gratitude, pain of separation, but also joy in having come to know you, and be so much a part of your lives. As I wind up my time with all of you, my heart is full of memories of you all- memories of thankfulness, friendship, support, patience and above all love. You are blessed me in so many good ways. When I look back to my life, I see, how you have helped me to grow spiritually. As I ministered to you, preaching to you, you were also ministering and preaching to me. We have worked together, and I want to tell you that, I have learnt a lot from you. Dear brothers and sisters, you are a very dear people to me I have met, and you will be with me for the rest of my life. You are part of my history. Thank you for everything that you have given me. I request your support and prayers for my future ministry in India. Even though I am going away from here, you are always in my heart and in my prayers. Goodbyes are not forever, are not an end; it's simply means, I will miss you, until we meet again.

WHAT IS WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED?

Walking with Moms in Need is a process through which Catholic parishes and communities "walk in the shoes" of local pregnant and parenting women in need.

Everyone should know how to help moms in difficult circumstances.

While not trying to turn Catholic parishes into pregnancy centers, we can support local pregnancy centers where they exist, and we can also find and share other resources with pregnant and parenting women.

And where there are few local resources, we can create our own, based on the gifts of the parish community!

We hope you and your parish will join us in Walking with Moms in Need.

For more information contact Kathy Barton, Director of Social Ministry at 304-233-0880, Ext. 289 or Kbarton@dw.org.
