Father Paul's Reflections on the Readings

Pentecost Sunday

On the day of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit descended with power upon the Apostles in the image of tongues of fire and thus began the mission of the Church in the world. Today is also the birthday of the Church. Prior to his Ascension into Heaven, Jesus asked them to stay together to prepare themselves to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. On the day of Pentecost: The Holy Spirit descended upon the apostles; the frightened apostles were transformed into committed preachers; the listeners experienced the power and presence of the Holy Spirit through the apostles' gift of tongues; the early Christians became powerful witnesses, and brave martyrs for their Faith in Jesus. Today's feast also indicates that the Holy Spirit is an ongoing reality, which still touches our lives every single day. Let us pray to the Holy Spirit to rekindle in us the spirit of new life and enthusiasm, the fire of God's love. Let us repeat Cardinal Newman's favorite little prayer, "Come Holy Spirit."
