Father Paul's Reflections

on the Readings

Second Sunday of Lent

On this second Sunday of Lent, the Gospel is about the Transfiguration of our Lord. In the presence of the disciples Peter, James and John, Jesus changed in appearance. And the voice of the Father was heard from the cloud: "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Indeed, disciples followed the instruction of the heavenly Father: "Listen to him!" Listen to him, tell us all we need to know, "Rise and do not be afraid." Rise from uncertainty and fear. Rise from timidity and sin. Rise from indifference. And do not be afraid. Do not be afraid of admitting your mistakes, confessing your sins. Do not be afraid of giving, of praying, of sacrificing. Do not be afraid of surrendering your life to God. As we continue our journey this Lent, walking a road that takes us from the desert, to a mountaintop and ultimately to Calvary with Jesus, we need to carry those words with us. To listen to Jesus is: to hear what he says; to accept what he says; to make it one's own, to identify with it fully Listen to him .

Gifts from the Holy Land

This weekend, March 4th & 5th

Enjoy a display of beautiful handmade olivewood carvings from the Holy Land. The Christians of the Holy Land have been suffering and continue to live in difficult economical situations. Olive wood carvings are part of a tradition handed down from one generation to another.

The Mission is to support our fellow Christians in the Holy Land by selling some of their olive wood carvings. Proceeds from the sale will benefit Christian families in Bethlehem/Holy Land

Support these families by purchasing a gift directly from the little town of Bethlehem.

Come experience The Sacrament of God's Forgiveness

Please take time to experience the Sacrament of God's Forgiveness. The emphasis of reconciliation is not just that we are all sinners, but rather that God wants to offer sinners forgiveness of offenses committed against Him.

What Is Sacrament of Reconciliation?

Reconciliation (also known as confession) is a sacrament instituted by Jesus Christ in his love and mercy to offer sinners forgiveness for offenses committed against God. At the same time, sinners reconcile with the Church, because it is also wounded by our sins. Every time we sin, we hurt ourselves, other people, and God. In Reconciliation, we acknowledge our sins before God and his Church. We express our sorrow in a meaningful way, receive the forgiveness of Christ and his Church, make reparation for what we have done, and resolve to do better in the future.

The forgiveness of sins involves four parts:

Contrition: a sincere sorrow for having offended God, and the most important act of the penitent. There can be no forgiveness of sin if we do not have sorrow and a firm resolve not to repeat our sin.

Confession: confronting our sins in a profound way to God by speaking about them, aloud, to the priest.

Penance: an important part of our healing is the "penance" the priest imposes in reparation for our sins.

Absolution: the priest speaks the words by which "God, the Father of Mercies" reconciles a sinner to himself through the merits of the Cross.

How to Make a Good Confession

Confession is not difficult, but it does require preparation. We should begin with prayer, placing ourselves in the presence of God, our loving Father. We seek healing and forgiveness through repentance and a resolve to sin no more. Then we review our lives since our last confession, searching our thoughts, words, and actions for that which did not conform to God's command to love him and one another through his laws and the laws of his Church. This is called an examination of conscience.

Begin with a prayer asking for God's help. Review your life with the help of some questions, which are based on the Ten Commandments. Tell God how truly sorry you are for your sins. Make a firm resolution not to sin again.

To Celebrate the Year Of the Holy Eucharist, as proclaimed by Pope Francis, Corpus Christi Parish will host an evening Holy Hour every third Monday of the month for a specific cause.

You are invited to attend this event in the month of March, to pray for those affected by Cancer and chronic illness. In today's world it seems that most everyone knows someone who has been diagnosed with cancer, who is fighting cancer, who has survived cancer or who has died from cancer and many people have chronic illness such as rheumatoid arthritis, diabetes, heart disease or stroke to name a few. The holy hour for those affected by cancer and chronic illness will take place on Monday, March 20th at 6:30pm in Corpus Christi Church.

Let's all gather together and pray for those who have been affected by these conditions and for their families, to pray for those looking for cures and those medical professionals who diagnose and care for those with these crosses in their lives. At the holy hour there will be music and we will be reciting the rosary and/or the divine mercy chaplet and divine praises—if you haven't recited these beautiful, traditional Catholic prayers in a while or would like to learn them, all the prayers will be in the leaflet provided and will make it easy for you to follow along. Please bring a rosary. All are welcome to attend!
