Father Paul's Reflections on the Readings

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Today, we celebrate the risen Lord as the Good Shepherd who lays down his life for his sheep. In today's Gospel, we are presented with the most genuine, committed and never compromising shepherd who is ever ready even to sacrifice his life for the sheep. Jesus is our shepherd who leads, protects and guides us to the safest pastures of life. Jesus claims that he knows his own sheep and they listen to his voice. Jesus is the door that protects and safeguards his followers. He is the good shepherd who gives his own life for the sheep and he becomes their way that leads to life eternal. Jesus knows that his sheep require constant attention and care. A failure from the part of the shepherd to do so can be detrimental to the sheep. The character of the sheep is such that they can never be on the right track unless they listen and follow the shepherd. Jesus by referring him as the good shepherd wants to teach us how weak and helpless we are and how he would go any extent to save us. Like in the case of sheep, we, his followers are so vulnerable and susceptible to many failures, wounds and temptations in our lives. Jesus becomes our strength who helps to overcome our weaknesses. Let us become good shepherds.

Mothers' Day

As we celebrate Mothers' day on this Sunday, I wish all mothers in our Corpus Christi Parish a most Happy Mothers' day. On this day we celebrate the unconditional love of mothers to their children and children's love for their mothers. "Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails." (1 Cor. Ch. 13)

We acknowledge the tremendous impact mothers have on their children. It is said "if you educate a man you educate one individual and if you educate a woman you educate a family." Let us gratefully admit the fact that none of us is able to return to our mothers, in the same measure, all the sacrificial love that they have given us. And we know that our mothers are the heart of every home — teaching and guiding their children to trust in God's love and Providence in these challenging times. Now, more than ever, it is time for us to thank our mothers for their love and to pray for them. I entrust all our mothers to the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of Jesus and the mother of each one of us."

The Sacrament of Confirmation

In the previous essay, we considered the sacrament of Baptism. It is important to remember that all the sacraments make some aspect of Christ's saving work on earth present to us today, and so must be understood through the life of Christ. However, it is also important not to forget that the seven sacraments are foreshadowed in the Old Testament. This essay will be about Confirmation.

We can see the foreshadowing of the sacrament of Confirmation in the Old Testament through the anointing with oil. For example, God commanded Moses to anoint Aaron and his sons with oil so that they could serve God as priests (Exodus 40: 12-15). Also, Samuel anointed both Saul (1 Samuel 10: 1) and David (1 Samuel 16: 13) as kings of Israel. As the Catechism puts it, "in Israel those consecrated to God for a mission that He gave were anointed in His name" (CCC, 436).

In the Old Testament, anointing with oil was a sign that someone was set apart and given a special mission by God.

In the New Testament, we can see how anointing is transformed into a vessel through which God mediates the grace of His salvation to us. The foundations of Confirmation can be found in Luke's account of Jesus' baptism by John in the River Jordan. After "the Holy Spirit descended upon Him in bodily form like a dove" (Luke 3: 22), Jesus then says, "the Spirit of the Lord is Upon me, because He has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor" (Luke 4: 18). Jesus' baptism is typically considered the beginning of His public ministry. This is because it was at this point that Jesus, like his ancestors in the line of David, received his anointing.

Jesus, however, was anointed with the Holy Spirit and thereby given the mission of bringing salvation to the human race.

How Confirmation applies to us can be seen through Luke's Gospel and Luke's sequel, the Acts of the Apostles. Consider, in Luke's gospel John the Baptist says, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming...He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." In Acts, the Church, the body of Christ, was anointed with the Holy Spirit during Pentecost in tongues of fire (Acts 2: 3). The Church began its ministry just as Jesus began his, with the anointing of the Holy Spirit. Similarly, when we are Confirmed, we "share more completely in the mission of Jesus Christ and the fullness of the Holy Spirit with which he is filled" (CCC, 1294). That is, when we are anointed with oil and "sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit", we are commissioned to proclaim in His name "repentance, for the forgiveness of sins...to all the nations" (Luke 24: 47).

Confirmation
A sacrament in which the Holy Spirit is perfected in those already baptised in order to make them strong and perfect Christians and soldiers of Jesus Christ.

In the next essay, we will consider the Sacrament of the Eucharist.
