Father Paul's Reflections on the Readings

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The first reading from the Book of Daniel, speaks of the end of the world. The prophets were reassuring the people who were losing hope that they should not give up. In the Gospel of Mark, we see Jesus describes the end of time. "The sun will be darkened, and the moon will lose its light, and the stars will fall from the heaven." There will always be difficult moments in our lives. These are not a punishment from God; they are the entry point for His coming into our lives.

Jesus asked his disciples, to be vigilant in the face of tribulation and persecution. Salvation is promised to those who endure till the end. As we struggle to live in troubled times, as we are battered by the storms of life, only our faith vision will help us to look beyond to the Lord who will never abandon us. The greatest spiritual lesson to be learnt in life is that the Lord is the only one who will be constant in our life; he is the only reliable one. Everyone and everything else will fail us. Hence, the Lord's saying, 'keep awake, with our glance fixed on him.'

"If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him." (Rom 6:8)

GIVING TUESDAY—NOVEMBER 30, 2021

As we begin to approach the celebration of Thanksgiving, I ask you to call to mind the many wonderful gifts that God has given us. Even through the most trying times we still have so much to be grateful for.

On November 30th, our parish will again join in the celebration of Giving Tuesday, a Global Day of Kindness and Generosity. Please consider supporting our parish by making a gift to the Catholic Sharing Appeal on Giving Tuesday. Because we are already over 50% of our parish CSA goal, your full donation will come back to our parish to a new boiler for the church.

You and your family are in my prayers, and I hope that I remain in yours. May you and your family have a wonderful and safe Thanksgiving.

Father Paul M.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

NOV. 20 & 21

Next week our special collection will support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. More than 38,000,000 people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to bring permanent and positive change to their communities. Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at www.usccb.org/cchd.
