Father Paul's Reflections on the Readings

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The two widows – in the Gospel and in the first reading– are inspiring. The widow of Zarephath gave to Elijah her last meal, and was ready to die afterwards. God did not let her jar of flour, and jug of oil, go empty. The poor widow in the Gospel, gave clear witness by contributing all she had - her whole livelihood to God. The two small coins were all she had to survive, but she still gave them all, equal to giving her whole life. People like these two women may be simple, but they have large and generous hearts and know how to love, holding nothing back. The world is enough for man's need, but the world is not enough for man's greed. What really matters is that people take care of each other. Nobody is so poor, as to have nothing to give; nobody is so rich, as to have nothing to receive. God looks not at the greatness of the work, but at the love with which it is performed.' God loves a cheerful giver!

GIVING TUESDAY—NOVEMBER 30, 2021

As we begin to approach the celebration of Thanksgiving, I ask you to call to mind the many wonderful gifts that God has given us. Even through the most trying times we still have so much to be grateful for.

On November 30th, our parish will again join in the celebration of Giving Tuesday, a Global Day of Kindness and Generosity. Please consider supporting our parish by making a gift to the Catholic Sharing Appeal on Giving Tuesday. Because we are already over 50% of our parish CSA goal, your full donation will come back to our parish to a new boiler for the church.

You and your family are in my prayers, and I hope that I remain in yours. May you and your family have a wonderful and safe Thanksgiving.

Father Paul M.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

NOV. 13 & 14

Next week our special collection will support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. More than 38,000,000 people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to bring permanent and positive change to their communities. Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at www.usccb.org/cchd.

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

November 7-13, 2021

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons.

Send us your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

JOB OPPORTUNITY

Aim Women's Center is searching for a Part Time Registered Nurse to work on Tuesdays and Full Time Registered Nurse to serve as our Nurse Manager. Aim Women's Center is a non-profit organization that serves women who find themselves in an unplanned pregnancy. Aim Women's Center provides community resources, medical care, support and option consultations. If you are interested in either position, please contact us at 740-283-3636 for more information.

Survivors of all forms of abuse across the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston are invited to attend a special retreat entitled, "The Way."

The Way is 3-day guided meditation and prayer program for men and women crafted around the Stations of the Cross. It is an opportunity for healing and prayer and for survivors to reflect on God's plan for their lives through prayer and sacraments. There will be opportunities for individual counseling and spiritual direction. Sponsored by the Archdiocese of Washington, the retreat is free of charge and will be held November 19-20, 2021, for men and February 18-20, 2022, for women. The location of the retreat is not being publicized to protect the privacy of survivors.

For more information on the retreat, visit <https://adw.org/the-way-retreat>. To learn more and to register, contact Deborah McDonald at mcdonald@adw.org or 301-853-4466.
