Father Paul's Reflections on the Readings

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The main theme of all reading today is faith. The Gospel gives a contrast between the judge and the widow. Who is more powerful? The judge is in position of power. His power was based solely on his human power. The widow, on the other hand, had nothing, except her faith in God. She persisted in her prayer, and never got tired of imploring the judge for justice. Human power is no match to divine power. That is why, it is said, "The most powerful man on earth is one who kneels down and prays." Today Jesus reminds us that we should never give up our faith even when God seems silent at the moment. Saint Monica is a model for all of us about praying patiently and not loose heart. In many years, her tears are her prayers. She offered all her sacrifices and prayers for the conversion of her husband and son St. Augustine. Finally, both were converted and her son became a great saint of the Church. With God nothing is impossible! We plan our future by seeing the present. But God plans the present by knowing our future. Remember failure is not fatal. Success

SPECIAL COLLECTION OCTOBER 29-30, 2022

In the aftermath of Hurricane Ian, which devastated areas across Florida and other parts of the southeastern US, recovery and cleanup efforts continue. Many lives have been lost and thousands of homes, business, and Church properties have been damaged or destroyed. Throughout the region, Catholic Charities USA (CCUSA), Catholic Relief Services (CRS), in conjunction with other agencies, are already hard at work providing humanitarian aid. Items like food, water, sanitation assistance and clean-up services are already being provided and the agencies will remain in the area to support repair and rebuild efforts in communities. Bishop Brennan appreciates your generosity this past summer to those affected by the severe storms and flooding in Eastern Kentucky and Southern West Virginia. But he feels impelled once again to ask you to do what you can to help our fellow Americans suffering from Hurricane Ian

FAMILY TUITION ASSISTANCE

We currently have several families who are dealing with financial difficulties.

THEY NEED YOUR HELP!

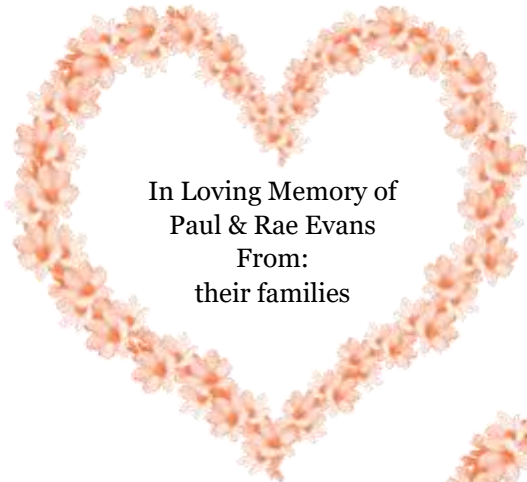

If you are able to donate anything either weekly, monthly, or a one-time donation to help with their tuition expenses, it would be greatly appreciated. Please drop it off at the Parish Office or put in the collection basket in an envelope marked "TUITION ASSISTANCE"

All of these families understands the importance of a Catholic education and thought they would be receiving financial help through the WV Hope Scholarship.

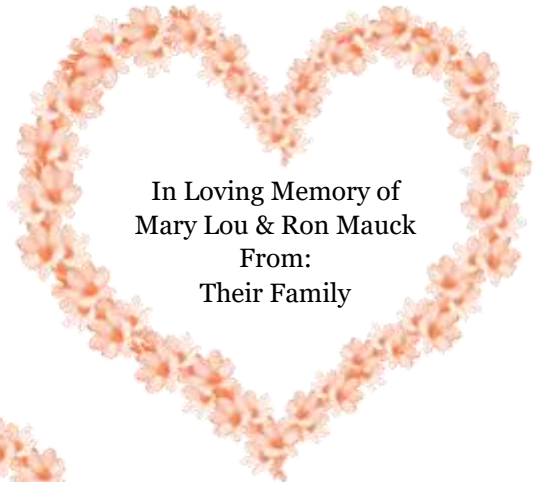

Tuesday, October 11th, was our "Caring for our Community Day" and we celebrated by picking up litter! It was a beautiful day to get outside and take care of our surroundings. Preschool through eighth grade participated in this service project.
