Father Paul's Reflections on the Readings

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings of today present the theme of gratitude that should come spontaneously from the heart of every individual. Today's first reading we have the healing of Naaman the Syrian and the expression of his gratitude to God for taking away his sickness through his prophet Elisha. Naaman was ready to reward the prophet generously; but Elisha refused to accept any reward for the divine blessing. Because he was just happened to be a channel for the divine blessing. A foreigner becomes a model of faith to God's chosen people. In the Gospel we have the story of the ten lepers who come to Jesus for healing. Only one of them, a Samaritan healed of leprosy returns to Jesus to praise God and express his gratitude to for such a grace while the nine others who were healed show no gratitude at all. We all are aware that we have been the recipients of gifts from God. When gratitude is replaced by an attitude of entitlement, everybody suffers. If we replace our attitude of entitlement with an attitude of gratitude, our world will turn out to be heavenly. Dear Friends, count your blessings instead of your crosses; Count your joys instead of your grief; count your friends instead of your enemies; Count your smile instead of your tears; Count on God instead of yourself.

KEEP OUR SEMINARIANS IN YOUR PRAYERS LET THEM KNOW YOU SUPPORT THEM

Last week the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston released the 2022-2023 seminarians poster. Today, we share this prayer written by St. John Vianney that the faithful can pray for these and other men discerning a call to the priesthood.

God, please give to your Church today
many more priests after your own heart.
May they be worthy representatives of Christ the Good Shepherd.
May they wholeheartedly devote themselves to prayer and penance;
be examples of humility and poverty;
shining models of holiness;
tireless and powerful preachers of the Word of God;
zealous dispensers of your grace in the sacraments.
May their loving devotion to your Son, Jesus in the Eucharist and to Mary his Mother be the twin fountains of fruitfulness for their ministry.
Amen

TAKE A MOMENT TO SEND SOME SNAIL MAIL!

Seminarians Joe Derico and Dylan O'Sullivan attend John Paul II College Seminary.

Let our praise and support be loud and clear. Call upon St. Michael to intercede and protect them, for as St. Teresa of Avila said, "Behind each priest, there is a demon fighting for his fall. If we have the language to criticize them. We must have twice as much to pray for them." God bless these men and their families!

LETTER ON RESPECT FOR THE LIVES OF MOTHERS AND CHILDREN

As Catholics throughout the world prepare to celebrate "Respect Life" month beginning October 1, Bishop Mark Brennan has released a letter on respect for the lives of mothers and children. The letter is also in response to the recent law signed by Governor Justice which regulates the practice of abortion in West Virginia.

"My brothers and sisters, our Church is both pro-child and pro-woman. As the prolife movement long ago realized, seeking only to limit or eliminate abortions is not enough. We must also provide support to mothers before and after they give birth and to their families," Bishop Brennan says in the letter.

We have asked all parishes to place copies of the letter in the back of Church. Please take a copy. You can also read the letter online at www.dwc.org. Bishop Mark has also recorded a video version of the letter. The QR code can be scanned, allowing you to view the video on your personal device.

Please join Bishop Mark throughout the month of October and beyond as we work together to uphold the right to life and promote the welfare of families.
