Father Paul's Reflections on the Readings

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's parable may confuse most of us. We may ask: why did Jesus praise the dishonest steward that he acted prudently? Because he was astute to realize a basic truth about his future when he might not have access to the kind of wealth which he could squander around. He said to himself, "Now that my master is taking the stewardship from me, what am I to do? Here then is the crux of the story of today: the steward could have very well asked the debtors to give him part of the debt. After all, the master seems to have no idea of the amount owed to him by his debtors. He plans to do something more lasting: to use of the wealth to build something more lasting – friendships. He uses the present wealth to invest on future relationships. The people of this age diligently works to make their lives secure, comfortable and influential here on earth, compromising the kingdom values. We are all stewards of what God has entrusted to us; so, some day we will have to give Him an account of our stewardship. Let us be shrewd in seeking God's kingdom and its values.

TWO EVENTS FOR THE PRICE OF ONE! $20 Per Person

“Purified Event”

The “Purified Event” brings parents and teens (13+) together to discover God’s plan for love and opens up an opportunity for them to continue the discussion about this important topic at home, in a healthy and easy way with resources that work. It is also for parents, teachers, and coaches who work with teens and young adults. The event includes a new version of Jason’s renowned talk “Love or Lust,” where he mixes humor with down-to-earth practicality that removes an awkwardness, making the difficult conversations about love and relationships much easier. Your family will leave with an understanding of the good news of chastity, a healthy sense of self-worth, and the ability if needed, to start again. The night includes Eucharistic Adoration, praise and worship, and an opportunity to receive the sacrament of Reconciliation. This format transforms a simple talk into a mini-retreat for the family, allowing them to encounter the source of purity, healing, and renewal through Jesus Christ. For tickets, please call Lydia Estep at 304-231-4063, Jeff Smay at 304-374-2138, or Carol Smay at 304-374-2139. You may also go to chastity.com/purified and click on the St. Michael’s Purified date to purchase tickets.

The Corpus Christi Ladies Guild is selling Bosco’s Shopping Passes for $5 each. This pass entitles you to 25% off your in-store purchase on Wednesday, October 19th. If you would like to purchase a pass, please send in $5 to the school or parish office
