Father Paul's Reflections on the Readings

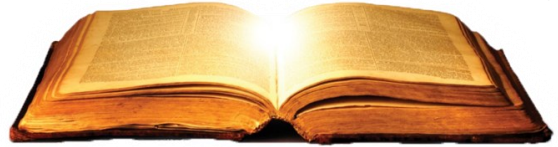

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's first reading tells us how the spirit of prophesy was given to Moses the leader as well as to seventy elders. But the spirit was also given to two outsiders Eldad and Medad, who begin to prophecy and this seems to cause a problem. Joshua wants God's spirit to be exclusively for 'insiders,' those who belong to the group. Moses on the other hand knows that God's gift is for everyone.

When God chooses us and blesses us, it is not for ourselves but for others. No one has rights over God. God is free and his gifts have no exclusive price tag! God gives freely his gifts to whomsoever he chooses. No one has a hotline to Jesus, he is available to everyone saint and sinner alike! Jesus in fact encourages us to use His name, to use His power. The last part of today's Gospel reminds us that being responsible followers of Jesus will involve making choices and these will be painful. We cannot compromise our faith and values. Christianity is rather about breaking down barriers and building bridges to and for Christ no matter what the cost! I am called not only to be for myself a good person. I am called to reach out, to love, to be just to others, to be fully free with and for others, to be truly brother or sister.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

HURRICANE IDA RELIEF

Most Rev. Mark E. Brennan joins Archbishop José H. Gomez of Los Angeles, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), and bishops across the country asking the faithful to support a special collection to help with the recovery of Hurricane Ida. The collection in parishes and missions in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston will be held at Masses the weekend of October 2-3.

Donations will go to the Bishops Emergency Disaster Fund to assist with the humanitarian, long-term recovery, and significant needs stemming from Hurricane Ida which devastated several states, specifically the pastoral and reconstruction needs of the Church, as well as the efforts of Catholic Charities USA and/or Catholic Relief Services.

Checks are to be made payable to your respective parish/mission and on the memo line indicate Hurricane Ida Relief. The parish/mission will send one check for all contributions for this collection to the DWC Finance Department, attention—Flor Prianti.
