2nd Annual Spring Clean-Up

Come one come all to the second annual spring clean-up day for Corpus Christi Parish! Mark your calendars for March 16th starting at 9:00am and going until it's.... finished! Rain or shine just like last year! Young, not so young and mature persons are all invited to participate in this hard-working but most enjoyable event! Whatever time you can give, we'll take! Lots of things need to be done: bushes trimmed, leaves raked and hauled, edging, power washing and last but not least—spreading literally tons of mulch! Bring your wheel barrows, edgers, rakes, shovels and power washers! No need to do any other exercise that day—this is it! Will the swashbuckling Wallenda brother return? Will the man with the fly-boy goggles, the power washing duo, the flower bed ladies, the chocolate chip Baker, and the Edger brothers make an appearance? Will the Retirement gang bless us with another year of raking along with the Carter and Bechtel girls? Will the middle-aged raised bed crew take the task on again. (Maybe they're still sore from last year?! Will we see members of the Vogrin, Buck, Beiter, and Perry families flex their muscles? Will the vigorous hedge clipping go-getter return with his lovely wife and daughter? Will the new man in the Roman collar roll up his sleeves? Will that trailer return?—please let the trailer return!! Come to the event and find out! And...make a few good memories too! See you there! Please sign up on the clip board in the back of the church. Alternate date in case of very bad weather is 3/23/24. If you have any questions please call Lydia at (304) 231-4063 or John at (304) 231 4209.
